

SUMMARY OF REPORT AND PICTORIALS OF THE 30TH EDITION OF CONSUMER TOWNHALL MEETING (CTM) HELD IN NUMAN, ADAMAWA STATE

The Nigerian Communications Commission (NCC) hosted its 30th Edition of Consumer Townhall Meeting (CTM) in Numan, Adamawa State on Thursday 24th August, 2017 with the theme: “Information and Education as a Catalyst for Consumer Protection”.

Alh. Ismail Adedigba, Deputy Director, Consumer Affairs Bureau chaired the programme which had in attendance Five Hundred and Seventeen (517) participants among whom were representatives of Numan Local Government Area, Consumer Advocacy Groups, members of the Press, Service Providers, members of staff of Nigerian Communications Commission (NCC) and Telecom Consumers.

The event featured interactive session centered on poor Quality of Service, Auto subscription of service, Unsolicited SMS, absence of SIM registration centers in Numan among others.

Participants were educated on the use of 2442 Do-Not-Disturb (DND) and 622 NCC Toll Free Line short codes and they were urged to activate the 2442 DND short code to stop the influx of Unsolicited SMS/Calls to their Mobile phones.

PICTURES AT THE 30TH EDITION OF CONSUMER TOWNHALL MEETING (CTM) IN NUMAN, ADAMAWA STATE

Dignitaries at the 30th Edition of Consumer Townhall Meeting (CTM) in Numan, Adamawa State

Some Service Providers at the 30th Edition of Consumer Townhall Meeting (CTM) in Numan, Adamawa State

Cross section of participant at the 30th Edition of Consumer Townhall Meeting (CTM) in Numan, Adamawa State

Cross section of participant at the 30th Edition of Consumer Townhall Meeting (CTM) in Numan, Adamawa State